TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1864.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We have no political review for this packet edition; it would be well if Argentines could leave the past fortnight an unspotted blank in their history. Which of our European readers cares to hear about Crudos or Cocidos, about Luque's death, or Alsina's heroism, or Varela's integrity?

Although the public alarm has calmed down there is every prognostic of a disturbance. We learn on the most undoubted authority that two cart-loads of arms were landed on Saturday morning in the rendezvous of the Cocidos, calle Tacuari. Both National and Provincial Governments seem to acquiesce in the arming of the rival factions. We shall see the consequences.

We are told that some of the navvies of the Western Railway, in pay of the Crudo Provincial Government, are not so enthusiastic about fighting, although they go through the streets with knives and pistols. They have been forced to abandon the spade and wheelbarrow, under penalty of dismissal, and any remaining qualms of conscience are silenced with liquor. The National Government has adopted the same barbarous warfare, all the Custom-house porters being drafted off to swell the Cocido ranks, and it is said they will not return to business for a week. Verily B. Ayres has fallen to the lowest depths of degradation.

The disabled Anglo-Argentine veteran, Michael Morgan, is likely to receive more from private sympathy than Government reward: after a delay of 30 years the War-office grants him a paper dollar (30 shillings). We have already received for him $185, some anonymous friend having enclosed us the liberal donation of $100.

There was an open-air Sunday night "El ballo en maschera," but we were afraid to attend, the streets being quite unsafe at midnight and even earlier. See the list of outrages in another column.

It is thought we shall have no more street-rioting on bloodshed, until Thursday 28th inst., this being the day fixed for swearing in the new deputies on whom depend the hopes and fears of all who are foolish enough to trouble themselves about the sol disant Legislature of this God-forgotten land.

The policeman Diaz, accused of barbarously killing Mr Charles Connell of Villa Morales has been brought into the Cabildo prison for trial. It seems the fellow had a very pleasant life in the gentle custody imposed on him at Mercedes, where he has influential "compadres." The cause is before Dr. Cardenas, and the Irishmen and all friends of justice expect a condign punishment will be inflicted on the malefactor, who has narrowly escaped the charge of murder. We understand that the Connell family is very poor, and some of our rich country cousins ought to aid in the prosecution: we will ask nowhere any contributions for the purpose.

The arrival of the 2nd inst. infantry from Martin Garcia, yesterday, made a stir in town. They arrived per Pampero, and landed on the mole in excellent order, amid the felicitations of a motley crowd. They numbered about 350 strong, preceded by their band, at half past two, through the Plaza, and presented quite a martial appearance Their arrival is opportune after the recent riots.

Yesterday a soldier was carried on a litter apparently dead, by his comrades, through calle Cangallo. His face was covered, but he still wore his "kepi": we have not heard any particulars.

There are vague rumors of disturbance in the camp, the names of the districts and non-interes being kept a secret. It is possible, however, the whole is a 'canard,' got up for the present season of alarm.

The movements of Paraguay excite Solitary; Don Jose Lopez has marched 5000 troops towards the Corrientes boundary, while the Argentine republic at present hardly able to resent so bold a step. Some people think it will become serious: we do not.

On yesterday was published 'The Cotton-fields of Paraguay and Corrientes,' of which we sent 50 copies to El Monitor de Negocios subscribers. It contains, besides the Letters published in the 'Standard,' some further details of those cotton-districts, occupying 1½ pages, bound in card, price $2: Oficio at Messrs. Mackern's, and at this office.

The British Consul has favoured us with a copy of the blockade regulations of some part of Denmark, but as we do not understand Hyde Hall's much low Dane, we are at a loss as to the nature of the specifications.

The "Rifle Match" at Ramos, will take place to-night. It is well worth looking.

We again bid adieu to Messrs. Allen, Hayden, and the other pressmen leaving us by this packet, and wish them a pleasant voyage home.

STATE OF THE INTERIOR.

(From the Fero-Carril.)

The event of most importance for the Provinces is the news brought by the last steamer of the happy termination of the difficulties which appeared to beset the Great Central Railroad. We have been raised from despondency by the gratifying intelligence that the road has been contracted for by the great firm of Drassy and Co., at the small five thousand four hundred pounds permile, and that the company will be presented to the public under the happiest auspices.

The workmen on the ten miles of embankment already made, are at work on the culverts, three of which are already finished, leaving only two to complete this portion of the line in a state to receive the rails.

The province of Santa Fe still remains a model of good order and regular Government; and the spirit of every progress we certainly have no cause to be dissatisfied when we witness the little progress made as yet in the province on whose welfare and commercial prosperity that of Rosario in a great measure depends.

It is known has been busy transferring large quantities of merchandize to the interior. We have to regret that Rosario is so poorly off for large importing houses that a greater part of the goods despatched to the interior are purchased, duty paid, in Buenos Ayres. For this reason the increase in our custom house for the first three months of the year only amounts to ninety old thousand dollars, which should be the monthly receipts of duties.

This state of things is very galling of course, for people see in it the practical conveying out of the Buenos Ayres direction, which is to make her custom house monopolise all the duties raised in the country.

Should another separation between Buenos Ayres and the Provinces take place, it will be altogether owing to this odious principle of the statesmen of the port of province will persist in the provinces enhances the prosperity of Ayres. Such an absurd notion can only be taken its rise from political passions!

The Governor Delegate of Santa Fe, Mr. Oroño, who is now member of Congress, has just returned to the capital of the province after a lengthened visit to the Department of Rosario, to which his presence has been of great service.

Through his instrumentality and activity a new colony has been planted on the Carcarana, about 60 leagues or 180 miles from Rosario and within ten or twelve miles from the line of railroad.

Already are many of the best talents up concessions in this colony, where the Government grants lots of eighty acres to all comers.

The establishment of this colony will secure the southern frontier from the steeling incursions of the Indians.

A bill will be presented at this day to the Provincial Chambers for the payment in full of the provincial debt, amounting to two hundred thousand dollars, by means of treasury notes bearing six per cent interest, and receivable in payment of public lands in various parts of the province and which will be offered in lots for sale every two or three months.

The National Government has commenced operations on the roads in the provinces. A large amount of material for artesian wells, to be bored along the line of railroad where traffic is hindered by want of water, has been already despatched from Rosario.

Mr. Agote, member for Catamarca, constituted by the government to inform on the practicability of opening new roads, has made very voluminous reports.

The political affairs of the provinces are becoming more satisfactory. In the principal provinces everything is quiet and ordered; Catamarca only remaining as a foul blot on the fair face of the Confederation. The disgraceful government of that beautiful province still remains in power; and the people formerly industrious and happy, are fast subsiding into an abject and indolent slavery.

Cordoba is happily delivered from her lateral troubles. The republican government of Mr. Ferreyra is firmly established and all opposition has ceased; and the enthusiasm which will be excited there by the favorable news in reference to the railroad will tend undoubtedly to allay party feeling.

The misdemeanors of the Governor, giving such exorbitant salaries to members of Congress, has been the cause of many uneasy nights to the vinces. The consequence has been disgraceful flights over the spirit, and the sending to Congress of men entirely unfit for that high office: men who only make themselves and the province they represent, ridiculous.

Many gentlemen have intended during this session to try to modify the law which gives them so much of the public money and causes such continual demoralization.

San Juan and Mendoza are "going ahead" in a fair way. The mines of the former place are proving every day richer and richer.

The report addressed to Mr. Meiggs of Chile, giving a circumstantial account of the discovery of a pass in the Andes by which a railroad may be easily thrown across the Cordilleras, has created a great sensation.

The election in Santa Fe and in Entre Rios have passed over in the quietest manner possible, there not having been a single row.

In Salta the elections were rather violent, but nothing serious occurred.

In Tucumann there has been felt a series of earthquakes, but of a harmless character. No damage is reported as having been suffered.

The sugar crop in Tucuman this year has been upwards of one hundred thousand arrobas, or twenty five thousand hundred-weight. The sugar produce at present is at least white Brazilian, and sells at twelve dollars the quintal.

Tucuman might easily produce enough sugar and tobacco of a very superior quality to supply the wants of the Republic, but for exportation.

The Government has not yet openly decided for the Buenos Ayres ambition, but we have strong hopes it will soon do so, as the eminent Minister of the Interior approves the idea.

Within a few weeks weeks will be published a little work on the origin and progress of the colonies of Santa Fe, in Spanish and English, which will give our readers a very full and correct idea of what the emigrant may expect to do in this country, delineated in the small picture contained in the little work referred to.

REIGN OF TERROR.

The Pueblo exaggerates the number of what it calls "assassinations" (killing at election riots is not generally called murder but manslaughter). The total killed in the last three days does not amount to three. The wounded are about 15, few seriously. Mr Bulbin was shot in the fleshy part of the arm, and is recovering. Capt Luque is said to have died. D. Adolfo Alsina was not hurt. D. Hector Varela received no injury except to his lungs, from shouting. Mr. Gibson, the English tailor, narrowly escaped being shot Monsieur Bonnemason was more frightened than hurt, he spent half the day in bed.

We do not know whether the fellow who stabbed the crime minister is in prison. Colonel Conesa's brother was released on Saturday morning. Colonel Garela has been dismissed the Argentine service on an accusation of being a ring-leader among the Crudo mob. Some of the police-commissaries are said to have harangued the crowd "stand firm, boys; and if Mitre and his ministers come, why, let them!" Several of the Cocidos are said to have levelled the epithet "Restauradores" by shouting 'Down with Saavedra: hurra for Rosas!'

On Friday night some mad cops drove through town firing revolvers out of the coach windows. It was, probably, to counteract this, that a mob rushed into a coach at the corner of Defensa and Comercio: the occupants Sor Arroyo and 2 friends were unhurt, but we read that one ball went between their heads. The Pueblo states that it is unsafe to approach the Western railway terminus, owing to the number of drunken servants and navvies who have recently protected popular rights. For last three days there have been noticed several wicked-looking fellows standing at the street corners; these individuals are technically called 'compadres,' and being now armed form a striking feature of the Reign of Terror.

CEREMONY AT MERLO.

On Sunday Mr. John Hood was received into the Roman Catholic Church, at Merlo, receiving the usual conditional baptism at the hands of Rev. P. J. Dillon. The neophyte, an American citizen, had belonged, we believe, to the Episcopalian sect of reformed Christians, and acquired the rudiments of Catholic doctrine from the worthy Irish priest of the district.

How it may not be amiss to explain to our readers that the Catholic Church holds baptism to be valid, whether conferred by priest or layman, Christian or Mahometan. Yet in the case of Protestants a doubt always arises, as they do not hold the necessity of baptism for salvation, and their clergymen are not invalid, cases particularly about pouring water on the neophyte's head. For this reason Catholic converts are conditionally baptised.

Mr. Hood was baptized, immediately before High Mass, by the Rev. Mr. Dillon, assisted by the Rev. P. Romero and another subscriber. Mr. and Mrs Coffin of Moron acted as sponsors for their countryman, the ceremony being performed at the high altar. It was then sung with due solemnity by the parish priest of Moron, and the services of some professional singers from Buenos Ayres had been secured for the occasion. After the Gospel, the Rev. Mr. Dillon ascended the pulpit and gave a short discourse in the Spanish, begging the patience of his auditory in case of any inelegancies of diction (as this gentleman only came to the country a few months ago). He then craved permission to address his countrymen in English, pronouncing to them an impressive and appropriate exhortation.

After Divine service the sponsors and friends partook of some refreshment at the house of Father Dillon.

RIO NEGRO

We have the 'Eco' of Mercedes to Sunday, 24th inst., Colon Peres' division, surnamed 'brilliant,' is encamped at Fraybentos, ready to set out in search of the rebels. Communication with Montevideo seems cut off, by the drought: the last diligence was seven days overdue, and no tidings of it. It is thought a garrison will be placed in Fray Bentos, mounting some pieces of artillery, to prevent the Colorados from making this their rendezvous to and from Buenos Ayres. On the 18th two rebel stragglers were captured near Mercedes, and handed over to the authorities: they belonged to the famous band of Dionisio Coca. Orders have been sent to secure the department of Hiburtern, with two squadrons of cavalry. The new steamer Ena is expected to make the first trip to Montevideo on Monday, May 2nd. The owners of the Salto have got a patent for a packet-boat to Rio Negro, on condition that they run a small steamer, as Mercedes did last year between Mercedes and Ysaguaire. This will be a great attraction to the Rio Negro trade. Mr. John Philip Bitter announces under date April 22nd, that he has opened the French Bank of Maua and Co., at Mercedes.

THE BELGRANO RACES

Challenge of the Racer Belgrano

The races on Sunday, we are informed, were a miserable failure. Perhaps, owing to the bad weather, the attendance was so poor, no ladies being present, and only a sprinkling of professional turfites. The first race came off at 4 p.m., and the winner was the bouilly 'Monotono.' The second was a shabby affair; we have not heard which came in last.

The famous racer Belgrano paced to and fro in front of the grand-stand, challenging all horses native or foreign, to run half, or a whole, round, for any amount. No one took up the gauntlet, and Belgrano retired without having found a competitor.

We have to advise the turf in general that Belgrano has been sold, and will soon leave for Brazil. The same challenge is to be given for the eight days more, in order to give all racers a chance of testing once again the speed and qualities of the champion.

Some wine and cakes were consumed on the ground, last Sunday, but no money, of any account, changed hands. The stewards looked very 'triste,' and the whole thing was excessively slow. We have not heard of any disorder, intoxication, or enthusiasm.

The Oriental 'Solferino,' winner of two races and loser of one on the Sunday previous, is said to be the ground. Perhaps his owners will take up Belgrano's challenge.

THE CLUB WAR.

Agitation in Town

The National official paper, 'Nacion Argentina,' published yesterday an alarming supplement, calling upon the citizens to attend the funeral of Captain Luque. This gentleman had been shot by Friday's riot, receiving a ball in the abdomen, and of course there was no hope of his recovery: he died on yesterday morning at his residence, near the Concepcion Church, and his remains were conveyed to the Recoleta cemetery by an immense crowd of Cocidos—in fact, his funeral was quite a political demonstration.

A number of inflammatory harangues were delivered over the grave, and it was feared that a dangerous excitement of feeling would be exhibited.

To-day and to-morrow will, perhaps, pass off quietly, but we fear serious disturbances before the end of the week.

The Policia has ordered a Sumario or process to be made out against those implicated in Friday's riots. This step will likely prove a mere sham. It is said that President Mitre has expressly told the Cocido leaders that he will no ress allow strong arm party disorders by the members of either Club.

The crisis Medico-quirurgical.

We have received the second number of this medical periodical.

The 'Fortnightly review' is anything but pleasa g to nervous-minded folks: it says that the public sanitary state is not the most flattering; dysentery is very prevalent, and, in the opinion of most of our medical men, it assumes a grave character.

The cause of this is attributed to the villainous state of the beef brought to this market, and the Review strongly advocates the appointment of a society of veterinaries to examine the animals. The review touchingly remarks that it was always like many other good ones, has remained nipped in the bud."

The second article is a few extracts from the pen of that indefatigable scholar, Dr. Burmeister on meteorological observations made in Buenos Ayres, and to any who may feel inclined to ascertain to what extent he goes we are content with the simple fact of being wet) it will be very interesting.

The rest of the periodical is so very facetious that it cannot be of the slightest interest to the general public.

ST. PATRICK'S COLLEGE. San Jose de Flores.

On Monday last the above popular academy was honored by a visit from his Lordship the Bishop, who from by his presence graciously evinced the warm interest he feels in the advancement—not alone of our Irish College, but of all educational establishments that impart a sound practical education to the rising generation.

At a former visit to the College in Lalor, he expressed great pleasure at the very forward state of the school, and whilst congratulating the learned principal, Dr. Fitzsimons, on the success which had attended his efforts, kindly suggested that he should be happy to have the College nearer town in order that he might personally superintend and patronise an establishment so worthy of support.

His Lordship appeared delighted at the splendid mansion and grounds now occupied by Dr. Fitzsimons, as like wise at the large increase of students which now number near 90.

The existence of such a college in this country and in the hands of gentlemen high in their ecclesiastical position is a boon which we are sure our country-men will not fail to appreciate. Flores is a position central to all; the house is commodious magnificent; the training of the boys is founded on a moral and religious basis—and advantages such as these, coupled with the long standing of the learned Professors cannot fail to make St. Patrick's the first academy in the Republic.

ENTRE RIOS.

We have received our usual files of newspapers from Uruguay, but, as usual, contain little or no news.

Captain General Urquiza intended giving yesterday (25th inst.) a grand banquet at his house of San José in honor of his successor. All friends of his Excellency, without distinction or special invitation, were requested to attend.

A proposal had been made to Government to erect a new market in Uruguay, and it was reported that the proposal had been accepted, and the market soon commenced. $27,000 have been devoted to the scheme.

INDIAN INVASION

The Indians have again invaded our frontier, coming down on Colonel Mansilla's line, 14 Leagues S.E. of Fort Lavalle, but very far from Azul: it is said the Colonel overtook them and recovered 300 head of cattle. Major Ortiz writes from Sauce de Usadungan, complaining of the justice of peace refusing him assistance against the savages. The one is Crudo, the other Cocido, and the Indians laugh at both.

MORGAN'S CASE.

Received from D. Felipe Senillosa of the 'Standard' the sum of $185 m/c, for which I return sincere thanks to the kind contributors.

SHIPPING.

It augurs anything but well for shipping interests in connection with the River Plate, the fact of during the past month no fewer than twelve vessels have left this for foreign ports with valuable cargoes of Martin Garcia, and other 19 are on the point of following their example.

Some of this latter lot have been in these beautiful waters since 30th Nov. last, and as every facility is given to make their sojourn in this port as long as possible, shipowners in England need not wonder at the stock of a port whence their vessels can lay snugly at anchor doing nothing, but costing money.

FREIGHTS.

England—Several charters have been to London for Dry, and higher rates have been paid. In this port there is not much offering for vessels on the berth, the steamers having the preference.

Antwerp—Salted hides for ballast are being taken at 8 per cent. per ton. Dry hides are very scarce. Rates are offering freely.

France—Great dullness prevails in shipments for the French ports.

United States.—There is great falling-off in engagements for this destination.

Freights in general—Small vessels of good flags have lately obtained higher rates for the rivers. In this port, where size is not so important, rates continue unchanged. Arrivals during the month have fallen off, and the disengaged tonnage is considerably reduced; but, on the other hand, our produce season will soon be over. Danish, Norwegian, Swedish, and German flags are objected to.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Important from California.—We take the following from the "Nacion Argentina"—Lynching and vigilance committees have again come into fashion in Sacramento. Monterey and Sonora and a great number of robbers and murderers have been sent to another world. In Napiza there has been a large fire, and the Indians have broken out to the south of the Salmon River, seized arms and ammunition, and killed several people. The same is happening in the South, in Mariposa County. The Salt Lake has been visited by a severe hurricane and many houses destroyed.

Sharp Justice—On Saturday night the Pueblo announced that Colonel Garcia had been dismissed for having been amongst the rioters of Friday last.

Mutiny at Tuyu—One of the native newspapers of Saturday obligingly contradicts the report of the military mutiny at Tuyus given out by the Eco de Cordoba. In these times it is hard to know what to believe, and we feel in the position of Dr. Johnson's acquaintance who complained of James Howell's well known economy of truth, saying, "You can only believe one half of what he says, and the difficulty is to find out which half.

Safe Custody—The 'Nacional' of Saturday night says "Last night there was an attack made upon the depot of the regiment under Comandante Grigera, with the intention of stealing the muskets which were there. The major of the corps saved them by depositing them in the house of the Office of peace. He should have put the soldiers there also, to save them from damage.

San Juan—The 'Nacional' has the following for the truth of which we cannot vouch: "The Mining Company, directed by Rickard, is on the point of abandoning its works, owing to the want of ores, and even perhaps becoming bankrupt. Rickard has proposed to save the company by purchasing, himself, the plant. It is not known if the company will accept the offer.

Arrests—On Friday night, two individuals, called Santalito Lima, were taken to the police office charged with driving in a carriage along Bolivar, at 11 p.m., firing off revolvers. Through the influence of General Hornos these two Dromios were set at liberty after a short confinement.

Two views of one picture—One newspaper commences an account of the disreputable scenes at Friday's fair with "The hitherto rowdyism and acts of 1840 were repeated yesterday." Another says, "Yesterday was a day of glory for the people of Buenos Ayres." We say: Let the end in view be what it may, the instruments employed were the rascally ruffian lot of cut-throats out of Newgate or cing Sing.

Prisoner from the Camp—On Saturday evening a prisoner was brought in from the camp to the Cazon Hotel heavily ironed. The nature of his offence we do not know, but suspect it must be for voting on the wrong side: we would fain hope he is one of those fellows who have been wanted for so long a time.

The Bolivian Chile Question—The rupture of relations between Chile and Bolivia and the refusal of Peruvian intervention have sorely displeased Peru. The Peruvian press calls it a "slight and 'Cossack like' proceeding." It is really very hard that poor Chile will allow Peru, which is a century behind it in civilization, to have a finger in this pretty little pie.

Corrientes.—An Indian, on the 11th inst., was murdered in Corrientes. The news of this occurrence spread like lightning through the Chaco population and in a short time the Indians, with their caciques at their head, flocked into the house of Don Francisco Sicard, known amongst them as Pancho Gray-curu, demanding twelve gold ounces as indemnity fine, or the immediate death of the delinquent, under penalty of killing all the workmen in the Chaco if the claims were resisted. There are some highly moral and edifying remarks in the 'Tribuna' on the dreadful nuisance of having to execute such speedy justice, and blames poor Barbarity for this state of affairs. Heaven knows we have civilization in abundance here (revolvers and elections for half the world), and we are in a worse pickle than the good folks of Corrientes.

Exports—On the 22d instant, the Avirk and Iden cleared out for Ant werp with 1118 bales wool, 11 do. horsehair, 7320 cowhides, 28 bales hide cuttings, 18,070 horns, 2 tiger skins, 62 pipes tallow.

The Banda Oriental—There seems by now every probability of this nefarious war being at last finished by means of Brazilian intervention. Government, in the meantime, is fortifying the town of Canelones. On the 19th inst., there was a review in Canelones, in which 300 cavalry, including police, took part; the infantry, the weak point in the River Plate armies, only mustered 70.

ON 'CHANGE.

April 26th, 1864.

The Rolea is not free from the general uneasy feeling, and specie rises. To-day patacons operated at 98 90, and after divers fluctuations closed at same figure. The amount done by this packet exceeds $200,000, including the amount of interest for Messrs Haring brothers £245,000 in payment of the English Bonds. Most quotations are 96½ on England, but some are at 97.

A decided inactivity still is now coming in from the South and West camps. The other items of produce will be found in our commercial review.
